

The announcement of the Teachers' Council of Thailand
Subject: Administration's Intent of the Teachers' Council of Thailand

-----

The Teachers' Council of Thailand is an education professional organization aiming at organization management in accordance with good governance and placing importance on Anti-Corruption, including misconduct which implement under the vision be said, “Khurusapha is a transparent organization and participate in Anti-Corruption” to build acceptance and confidence from teachers and educational personnel to be a clean organization and free of corruption.

As a chief executive officer of the Secretariat Office of the Teachers' Council of Thailand would like to declare administration's intent by adhering to the good governance to perform duties with honesty, integrity, transparency, accountability as well as responsibility and Anti-Corruption in all forms. To be a good role model with adhering to the common good in order to serve in line with the intent, administrators and officials of the Teachers' Council of Thailand should compliance with the following policies:

1. Performance: To perform the duties as assigned strictly in accordance with the working procedure by using resources effectively, have responsibility, honesty, integrity, and adhere to righteousness.

2. Service: To treat the clients with equality, fairness, convenience, quickness, accuracy with kindness and in a friendly manner.

3. Anti- Corruption: To compliance with Anti- Corruption measures of the Teachers' Council of Thailand and perform the duties with honestly, not use position for personal benefit or any conflict of interest.

4. Culture, Morality and Transparency: To promote and encourage officials and stakeholders for participating in surveillance, prevent and eliminate corruption and misconduct, cultivate attitude and values, not accept any form of corruption and misconduct , and support all administrators and officials to have moral, honesty, integrity, transparency, accountability.

5. Unity: To give administrators and officials participate in expressing opinions equally, accept each other, build the employee engagement and cooperate in driving the organization to be successful.

It is hereby publicly announced.

Announced on February 11, 2021.

Disakul Kasemsawas
Secretary-General
The Teachers' Council of Thailand